Lucas Fit Out appoints Commercial Director

Lucas Fit Out has appointed Paul Aylward, 36, to the post of Commercial Director. He will work alongside Managing Director Danny Lucas to manage and develop the growing project workload for the specialist subcontractor formed earlier this year.

Paul is a Chartered Quantity Surveyor who worked for the last 10 years as a senior project surveyor for Wates Construction. His recent projects have included the refurbishment of the London Transport Museum and the Norman Shaw South building, formerly Scotland Yard and now home to Westminster MPs.

Lucas Fit Out was formed earlier this year by S Lucas, the specialist painting contractor to the construction industry. The company offers a complete range of fit out services and is working on a number of important projects in and around the London area including Heathrow Airport.
